A request for continued examination under 37 CFR 1.114, including the fee set forth in 37 CFR 1.17(e), was filed in this application after final rejection. Since this application is eligible for continued examination under 37 CFR 1.114, and the fee set forth in 37 CFR 1.17(e) has been timely paid, the finality of the previous Office action has been withdrawn pursuant to 37 CFR 1.114. Applicant's submission filed on October 29, 2007 has been entered.

The following is a quotation of the second paragraph of 35 U.S.C. 112:

The specification shall conclude with one or more claims particularly pointing out and distinctly claiming the subject matter which the applicant regards as his invention.

Claim 1 is rejected under 35 U.S.C. 112, second paragraph, as being indefinite for failing to particularly point out and distinctly claim the subject matter which applicant regards as the invention.

In claim 1, "phosphate-type species" is indefinite as to what the metes and bounds of this language are. See MPEP 2173.05(b)E.

Applicant argues that claim 1 clearly sets the metes and bounds of the language by referring to washing those phosphate-type species that are water-soluble and formed as products upon the catalyst composition, that is products of the decomposition of the organophosphonate compound.

However it is still indefinite as to which of all the water soluble phosphate species are considered to be "phosphate-type." It is suggested that "type" be deleted.

In claim 1, "the water-soluble phosphate-type species that are formed as products upon the catalyst composition" lack(s) proper antecedent basis in the claim(s).

The following is a quotation of 35 U.S.C. 103(a) which forms the basis for all obviousness rejections set forth in this Office action:

(a) A patent may not be obtained though the invention is not identically disclosed or described as set forth in section 102 of this title, if the differences between the subject matter sought to be patented and the prior art are such that the subject matter as a whole would have been obvious at the time the invention was made to a person having ordinary skill in the art to which said subject matter pertains. Patentability shall not be negated by the manner in which the invention was made.

The factual inquiries set forth in Graham v. John Deere Co., 383 U.S. 1, 148 USPQ 459 (1966), that are applied for establishing a background for determining obviousness under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) are summarized as follows:

1. Determining the scope and contents of the prior art.
2. Ascertaining the differences between the prior art and the claims at issue.
3. Resolving the level of ordinary skill in the pertinent art.
4. Considering objective evidence present in the application indicating obviousness or nonobviousness.

This application currently names joint inventors. In considering patentability of the claims under 35 U.S.C. 103(a), the examiner presumes that the subject matter of the various claims was commonly owned at the time any inventions covered therein were made absent any evidence to the contrary. Applicant is advised of the obligation under 37 CFR 1.56 to point out the inventor and invention dates of each claim that was not commonly owned at the time a later invention was made in order for the examiner to consider the applicability of 35 U.S.C. 103(c) and potential 35 U.S.C. 102(e), (f) or (g) prior art under 35 U.S.C. 103(a).

Claims 2,3 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over Lapidus '268 or Obayashi '292 or Japan 10-202106 or Japan 58-219942.

Art Unit: 1793

Each of Lapidus, Obayashi, JP '106 and JP '942 teaches the regeneration of a spent catalyst by washing with water. See cols. 2,3 of Lapidus; the examples of Obayashi; and the abstract of each Japanese reference. The taught spent catalysts would appear to be suitable for decomposing organophosphonate compounds because they are the same metal oxides or activated carbon as instantly claimed.

Applicant's arguments filed October 29, 2007 have been fully considered but they are not persuasive.

Applicant argues that there is no motivation in any of the references that would lead one skilled in the art to even attempt to try to regenerate a spent catalyst without including all steps of each respective procedure.

However the instantly recited "comprising" claim language does not exclude any nor "all" the taught steps of each respective procedure. In any event, each reference teaches the instantly claimed washing a metal oxide or activated carbon spent catalyst with water, ie. aqueous solution.
